

HONEYWELL ACADEMY E-LEARNING SUBSCRIPTION SERVICE

Product Information Note

E-Learning is taking the learning market by storm, stemming from its proven efficiency compared to traditional (classroom) methods. Industry market research find that E-learning provides:

- Faster Ramp up and rollout
- Better Knowledge retention
- Higher focus during training
- No need to travel

Honeywell Academy is at the forefront of digital learning. Learners are provided access to a variety of training formats and tools throughout their training journey. Our Asynchronous and Modular training courses are becoming ever more popular with an engaging user interface, quizzes, hands-on labs and real-time support from Honeywell Training Specialists.

Now, we are pleased to offer the entire library of our self-paced E-learning training courses to customers as a part of annual subscription service.

BENEFITS

- The Subscription Service can be purchased in convenient packs of either 1, 5, 10, 15 or 20 licenses.
- You can take operations, maintenance, implementation training courses from a library of over 150+ self-paced courses giving you more than 1,100 hours of learning material.
- The E-learning portfolio covers Experion PKS, Field Device Manager, Trace, ControlEdge, HC900, Experion MX, QCS and more product lines.
- No need to pay for each course separately, and you can choose the training course when you need it for maximum flexibility.
- Any new releases in that subscription year will be automatically added to the pack without extra cost.
- When Honeywell Academy develops new AT/MT courses, they will also be added to the subscription pack without any extra cost.
- You can use SESP TMF or A360 Training funds (customer contribution only) to pay for these subscriptions.

HOW IT WORKS

1. The customer purchases the subscription pack and provides Honeywell Academy with the names and emails of the individuals to receive a license.
2. Each license in the pack will be assigned to nominated individuals from your organization. The licensee will be able to register for any two AT (Asynchronous) courses at a time.
3. Each licensee will receive login details to Honeywell Academy Learning Management System. They can browse through the schedule of upcoming AT courses and enrol online.
4. Honeywell Academy will confirm their credentials and register them in that session.
5. After completing the course, they can download the certificate.
6. The licensees can access the entire library of Modular Training (MT) courses on-demand for the entire period of their subscription.
